CLASS MOTTO—"The past forever gone, the Future still we own."

On September 16, 1946, forty-five freshmen entered Colome High School. Superintendent Farrell was the class sponsor. The class officers were: president, Darrel Berendes; vice president, Hugh Eastridge; secretary, Lois Vawser; and treasurer, Darlene Eckstaine.

In 1947, thirty-four sophomores returned to C. H. S. The chosen class colors were maroon and white. Mrs. Guerard was the class sponsor. The class officers were: president, Margaret Jerred; vice president, Ray Elliott; secretary, Meda Meyer; and treasurer, Hugh Eastridge.

The sophomores won the intra-mural traveling trophy from the juniors.

Twenty-eight juniors enrolled in the fall of 1948 under the sponsorship of Mr. Smith and Miss Dedlow. Class officers were: president, Donna Bjornsen; vice president, Leila Kinzer; secretary, Margaret Jerred; and treasurer, Ray Elliott.

A three-act comedy play, "The Life of Riley," was successfully presented under the direction of Mr. Smith and Miss Dedlow.

The first prize on the Veteran's Day floats was presented to the juniors. The theme of the float was "Atomic Energy."

The juniors were hosts to the seniors at the Junior—Senior Banquet, the theme being Oriental Gardens. Paul Guerard acted as toastmaster.

The intra-mural traveling trophy was kept in the class when the juniors defeated the seniors of '49.

September 7, 1949, twenty-five seniors began their final year at C. H. S. Mr. Tobin and Mrs. Johnson were the class sponsors. The class officers were: president, Paul Guerard; vice president, Freddie Vosika; secretary, Vernon Fischer; and treasurer, Jack Koenig.

The seniors were presented with first prize for their float on Veteran's Day. The queen and her attendants were the center of attraction on the float.

The juniors edged the seniors to gain the intra-mural traveling trophy after the seniors had held it for two consecutive years.

We have spent many happy and profitable hours during our four years at Colome High and it is with much regret that we depart.

BASKETBALL ACTIONS

The Champ

Paul Guerard

Leather slinger, Paul Guerard, began his boxing career three years ago. This year he was a finalist in Sioux City Journal-Tribune Golden Gloves at Sioux City, Iowa.

He fought champions from five different states and has fought in four different states. Paul is the third best boxer in South Dakota.

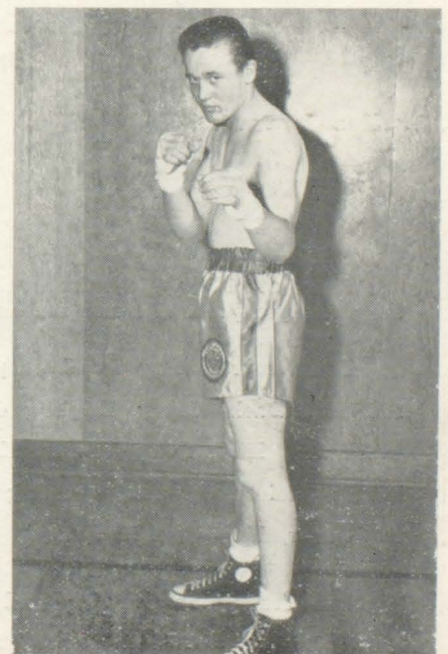

His only means of training is what he does himself and what his sparring partners, Dale Welch and Harold Kaiser, teach him. The three of them travel around a lot together and fight with all who wish to fight in their division.

Paul won the lightweight division (135 lbs.) at the Mitchell Tournament and Dale Welch won the feather weight division (126 lbs.).

Harold Kaiser hasn't done much fighting in tournaments but he has fought a great deal in other fighting cards. He is also a great fighter.

We are all proud of the great progress that Paul has made in these last three years.

Harold Kaiser

The annual homecoming festivities of Colome High School was held on Veteran's Day at Fetznors Feld, between the halves of the football game with Onida.

It was a formal ceremony with the queen of last year attending to present the throne to the new queen. The queen, Donna Bjornsen, was crowned by the Co-Captain Paul Guerard.

Donna Bjornsen was chosen as Homecoming Queen by votes of the entire school. The four girls who were runners-ups and served as her attendants were Lila Dykeman, Darlene Eckstaine, Margaret Jerred, and Leila Kinzer.

The queen and her attendants participated in the parade of floats, receiving first prize for having the prettiest float.

Carnival King and Queen

The candidates were: Freshmen, Delores Cahoy and Jim Swartz; sophomores, Marjorie Farris and Vaughn Smith; juniors, Joan Orel and Leonard Barlund; and seniors, Leila Kinzer and Paul Guerard.

After a close race, which ran until midnight that night, the freshmen came out on top. They were crowned by the senior candidates who were close behind them.

The crowning of the queen and king is the main attraction of the carnival.
