The Pepperettes is an organization that has accomplished many different projects throughout the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Stenson accept a gift of appreciation from the declamatory group.

There was food galore--and the banquet was truly enjoyed by all.

Everyone enjoyed the banquet of 1955 very much. The setting was a Hawaiian theme. Don Shaw played for the dance that was later attended and enjoyed by all.

Not all the days at C. H. S. are so full of "troubles" as this one seems to be. These "green freshies" have just undergone the treatment of the mighty seniors, and they look as though they rather enjoyed the ordeal.

A "silver tea" that was held at the home of Mrs. Gretschmann, to raise money for the "cheerleaders" proved to one of great success. Enough money was made for the purchase of two uniforms and the girls too, enjoyed the social "goodies."
