CLASS OF '62

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1962

CLASS HISTORY

Just four short years ago, we had a total enrollment of 31 students. We cautiously opened the doors to Colome High School and timidly sought our way to our classes. Class officers elected were: President-Duane DeMers; Vice-President-Doug Stenson; Secretary-Marilyn Manzer; Treasurer-Judy Wagner, with Mr. Gretschmann as class sponsor.

Our sophomore year found us happily serving at the Junior-Senior Prom. Mr. Sell was our sponsor with the following officers: President-Lyle Musilek; Vice-President-Bill Zeurcher; Secretary-Faye Harter; Treasurer-Judy Wagner.

Our junior year was a mixture of work and fun. Our first project was the magazine drive which proved to be very successful. Under the direction of Mr. Patton, our play, "Finders Creepers," was given. We all worked hard making the prom, with the theme "Song in My Heart," a success. Class officers: President-Claudia Vavra; Vice-President-Doug Stenson; Secretary-Jackie Worden; Treasurer-Ronald Fiala with Mr. Uken as our class sponsor.

Our last year started with the senior float winning first place in the Homecoming Parade. Class officers elected were: President-Doug Stenson; Vice-President-Delorus Kahler; Secretary-Frances Patton; Treasurer-Caroline Fetzer with Mr. Sieh our class sponsor. As we go to press, we are beginning work on our senior play, "Heading for the Hills." Now we are slowly approaching our ultimate goal - GRADUATION. As we receive our diplomas, we will carry with us many happy memories of our four years in Colome High School.
