We, the freshman class of 1994, took part in our first year of high school here at CHS. We were given a warm welcome by all, especially the Seniors. They even reserved a special day in honor of us, Salve Day. Although we weren't looking forward to it at first, it turned out to be really fun and interesting, were sure everyone got a few good laughs, also. The rest of Homecoming week was also fun. We put together a spectacular float which should have taken first place but was obviously overlooked by someone. All together it was a great year. We are looking forward to three more.

Wow! We are getting closer and closer 'til the final year, only 2 years left and we will be seniors.

We spent the year participating in school activities - sports, clubs, music, etc.

We had a fun sophomore year but we are ready to move ahead. We have some very talented athletes and the next 2 years look very promising.

Our last 2 years at CHS should be fun as upperclassmen. Looks like we are moving up in the world, finally!

HOMECOMING PARADE

SENIORS

FIFTH GRADE

Homecoming 1990 started off as usual with many different activities going on during the week. Coronation was held on Thursday September 13, 1990 at the Vet's Memorial Hall. Susan King was the mistress of ceremonies. As Susan read through the roll call starting with the year of 1918 and ending with the year of 1990 the air became filled with more suspense than ever before. It was finally the time to name the 1990 Cowboy and Cowgirl, who were Glenn Krumpus and Jennifer Moyer. Following coronation everyone attended the pep rally which was held at the hall due to the weather.

Friday morning everyone hustled around trying to get their floats done by the parade. Congratulations to the Seniors, who won first place for four years in a row. At 7:30 we hosted the Burke Bulldogs, who handed us a very disappointing loss.

ALL-SCHOOL PLAY

THE MAN OF THE HOUSE

The 1991 All-School Play was held March 22nd, at the Colome Vet's Hall. After last year's break of no play, this year's, combined both comedy and suspense for a successful, entertaining presentation.

The "Man of the House" starred Vince Thieman as the man, who had planned to enter a house whose inhabitants were away for the weekend and steal many of their things. Instead, he ends up with surprises and problems he never dreamed of!

The play cast would like to thank Mrs. Haines for her superb directing.

ENJOYING THE 1991 PROM

On April 19th, 1991 the Colome Prom took place. This year's theme was "Hollywood Nights." The banquet consisted of turkey, mashed potatoes and gravy, stuffing, corn, and chocolate cake. The band, "The Take" played the hits throughout the night. They were excellent! Mandy Flakus and Vince Thieman were crowned Queen and King.

The juniors would like to thank everyone who helped prepare, decorate, and get things ready. We hope it was a night everyone will remember.

SENIOR PROPHECY

Somewhere in the middle of nowhere about the year 2001, there was a peaceful little town named Brown-Town. It was founded by none other than David Brown, who won his fortune playing Lotto-America.

Clint Fetzer, the principal of BTHS, was kicked back in his chair, feet on the desk, eating jellybeans. He needed a little time to relax. It was prom week and that meant it had been anything but dull! He was just getting comfortable when he heard an awful commotion out in the hall. Before he could move, one of his old classmates came in. It was Ginger Roby (although her last name had been changed since high school). You would never recognize her now. She had short black hair and was wider than she was tall. Behind her came a long line of children. Seven to be exact, all under the age of 10.

"I am here to complain about the hours of my husband," she said. "He just has to work too hard!" Ginger was referring to her high school sweetheart Wayne, who was the janitor at BTHS. Just recently he was nicknamed the "Enforcer" for breaking up a fight over noon hour (his family was very proud)!

Just as Ginger finished speaking, two more people busted into the office. It was Vince Thieman and Danta teacher. Vince spoke first, "Mr. Fetzer, being the Physics teacher here at BTHS and also speaking from experience, I can honestly say that I am at the end of my rope. My students just aren't applying themselves anymore."

"He's right," whispered Danta, the head librarian. "It shows in their performance in my library. Sir, what are we to do? I can't get them to be quiet and study or anything! They just aren't concerned with school."

Suddenly another voice was heard. It was Laura Schultz the bus driver who won the National Bus Safety Award for going 5 full years without a single traffic violation. "Three children on my route tonight were late for the bus and it is the third time this week. Something must be done."

Ginger, Vince, Danta and Laura all began discussing their problems. The office became mass confusion so nobody noticed as Clint silently slipped out the door. Walking downtown he decided to get a pop. When he reached Flakus's Market, owned by Mandy Flakus, he became excited. He could see Mandy talking to two guys. It was Jay Supik and Jason Hauf.

"You made it!" he said. "How did everything go?"

"Super," said Jason. "Jay can handle any plane on any runway. I wouldn't ride with anyone else." It was a treat for both to be around their old friends. After becoming such a popular country singer, Jason didn't have much of a social life anymore and Jay was kept very busy transporting the band and equipment to all their concerts.

"Where are the other members of your band or aren't there any?" asked Mandy.

"There's only two of us. Angel Schwartz is my back-up singer," said Jason. "After our flight though, she wasn't feeling the best and the man at the runway told her to go see Keith Hesse, your town doctor. There had been a cancelled appointment this afternoon so he got her in right away. Speaking of appointments, I'm almost late for one now!" He reached in his pocket and pulled out Jeff Lebers' business card. Jeff is the town hairstylist and goes by the motto "If you don't look good, we don't look good." "I better get going. See you all tonight at the dance."

Just after Jason left, Jay decided to go check on the plane. Clint offered to go with him. He couldn't wait to see it! They told Mandy goodbye and started walking.

Going through one of the alleys, Jay suddenly tripped and fell to the ground, Clint helped him up and when they looked back they noticed his legs sticking out of a cardboard box. It was Susan King! Susan once was a very wealthy person and had owned 'King's Crazy Korner Convenience Store' but after losing a lawsuit with David Brown over the lottery ticket he supposedly purchased at her store, she ended up with nothing and is now on the streets. After hearing Susan's sad story, Jay invited her to come along with them to see the plane and later on be his special guest for the evening.

It was finally time to get the banquet going. With her apron on and spoon in hand, Linda Lilly dished up the last tray.

The honored table had just been seated. There was Father Eddie Weiler, the Catholic priest and Glenn Krumpus, the well-known lawyer who was the guest speaker for the evening.

Travis Bertram, the town cop got up to remind the kids just how important their safety was. After a short speech he signaled Father Weiler to give the prayer so the banquet could begin.

"Hold it!" yelled Glenn. My wife isn't here yet. Could you give her a few more minutes?" Just then the door opened.

"Here I am, sorry I'm late." In walked Jennifer in her overalls and barn boots. Everyone plugged their noses as she went past to take her place by Glenn. "One of our sows had a little trouble pigging," Jennifer explained. "I hurried as fast as I could. I didn't even have time to change."

After a successful banquet, everyone rushed around to get to the dance. The band was set up and ready to play. After taking the pills that Keith prescribed after a complete examination, Angel was feeling like herself again. In not time at all the dance was over with. Jay, Jason and Angel were beginning to load their equipment in their jet. Everyone crowded around to bid them farewell.

As a symbol of deep concern for his fellow classmates, Jason split the band money up in several ways. He gave some to David to start a shelter for the homeless (go get Susan off the streets) some for Father Eddie's church and parish, enough money for Wayne to buy each of his kids a new pair of shoes and Ginger too! And the remaining money went to the school under Clint's strict supervision.

Before everyone left, Mandy ran down to her store and got film for her camera. It was hard to tell when the class of 1991 would all be together again so they decided to get a picture. They were all lining up when they discovered someone was missing. About that time the sirens on the police car sounded and they saw Travis going down the street headed for the station. He had a passenger in the car and when they got out everyone noticed it was his son - he got caught drinking again!

At the end of the season, the Colome Cowgirls came on like gangbusters to achieve their goal of making it to the Regional Tournament. The Cowgirls won 5 of their last 7 games to pick up 3rd place in the Region. After a slow start, the team pulled together and worked hard to finish off the season with a 9-15 record.

Our three seniors, Mandy, Angel, and Linda will really be missed but the outlook for 1991-92 is very positive and optimistic.

The Cowgirls would like to thank our coaches, without their devotion we would have never made it, and also to our parents and fans for all their support.

The Junior Varsity this year consisted of many teen athletes filled with much talent. The girls were from 8th graders up to high school sophomores. The team was well put together with 5-8th graders, 4-freshmen, and 3-sophomores. The bus trips were long and sometimes bumpy, but on 6 occasions it was a happy ride. But then on 9 trips home, it got kind of long. All in all it was fun, and the memories will last. We are looking forward to next year, and another successful season.

The 1990 Cowboy Football Team saw a continuation of a proud tradition. For the 4th straight season the Cowboys found themselves in the play-offs but only to see their season end in a fierce battle at Harding County 21-14 in a game we had a chance to win.

Our Seniors have much to be proud of over the past 4 years. They have compiled a 30-12 record, 4 straight play-off appearances and played in 2 State Championship games. They are a big part of our "Proud Tradition". We wish Jason, Keith, Ed, Vince, Travis and Glenn all the best in life and hope all their dreams come true.

A new era is around the corner with new dreams to come true. Our future is full of enthusiasm and new dreams. New dreams of carrying on a tradition characterized by desire, hard work, and love. A new book is being opened next fall on Cowboy Football but the theme will be the same, "A Proud Tradition."

The boys ended the year with a 14-7 record. A major improvement of last year's 4-16 record. This was accomplished by a bunch of improved and good athletes, who worked hard. We are going to miss the five SENIORS who are: Jason, Vince, Travis, Jeff and Clint. Next year's Cowboy Basketball team will have to work hard in the off-season. We are capable of having and being a good team.

I would like to say "THANKS" to my assistant, Mr. Koth and to my three managers who were: Susan King, Misty Bertram and Jim VanOort. Also, a special thanks to the film producer, Roger Koth.

Colome's Junior Varsity had another successful season as they ended the hardcourt campaign with a 11-4 record. The highlight of the season was a triple overtime victory over Dakota Christian. The young Cowboy's placed second in the SCC Conference with their 5-1 record, the only loss to conference winner Platte. The J.V. squad was made up entirely of Freshmen and Sophomores so the future should be bright for the Cowpokes.

Though we had one, tough year, we served, set and spiked our way through the seasons to gain our hard-earned victories. We wish next year's volleyball team the best of luck and as much fun as we had this season.

The 1991 track team was full of many new surprises. It started when our first meet was cancelled due to the weather, which was a sign of things to come.

This year also saw two new coaches, Mr. Fennewald (head coach) and Mr. Rozendaal (assistant). A special thanks to them for all their hard work, dedication, and encouragement throughout the season.

Two new school records were set this year. Wayne Krumpus broke a 20 year discus record by a throw of 144'7". Also Ray Peters ran a 22.58 200, breaking Brad Vaughn's record.

Six athletes qualified for state: Wayne Krumpus - discus, Ray Peters - 100, 200, 800 relay, Glenn Krumpus, Kurt Letellier, and Steve Leber also in the 800 relay, and Valerie Vobr in the 100 & 300 hurdles.

With only three seniors on the team, we should be very competitive in years to come.

These students are glad to participate in Chorus. The Chorus students went to the Choral Festival in Gregory. They sang several songs with the other schools that attended. The Chorus will also be participating in the Regional Vocal Contest this spring.

All-State Chorus was held in Huron the week-end of November 2nd and 3rd. Some of the songs sung were: "Praise the Lord", "Alleluia", "Shut dedo", and Psalms 46.

This year the pep club tried a few new activities as they worked to lift the spirit at CHS. They began the year with a money raffle during the fall. At one of the boys basketball games, they raised money with a cake raffle. Throughout the fall and winter sports, the cheerleaders with help from the pep club supported the athletes with pep rallies, signs and treats in the lockers, and signs around the school.

Besides these activities, the cheerleaders led the cheers at games. They also held a cheerleading mini-clinic for grades kindergarten through sixth on February 1.
