RIPPLES IN TIME...

A lot happens in a school year. What are some of the more memorable events that take place? What will be remembered about this year? The events that we'll remember are the ripples that we have made in time. Some things will be better than others, but we will remember them just the same.

Mr. Harry Everhart taught high school math for the first semester while Mrs. Lynn Thieman took a leave of absence. While he was here, he held chess games in the math room over noon for anyone who was interested.

Mrs. Loretha Webber's resignation as CHS music teacher became effective at the end of the first semester, and she was replaced by Ms. Chelsey Weigel.

Mr. Greg Sherman received the South Dakota American Legion Teacher of the Year award after being nominated by the Colome American Legion. He was nominated because of his involvement and success in the American Legion Oratory Contest.

Students participated in "Read for Katrina Victims Day" to raise money for the victims of Hurricane Katrina that struck the Gulf Coast. The students raised over $3,000 which was later donated to the American Red Cross.

The school installed security cameras after receiving a South Dakota Homeland Security grant that provided the necessary money. A total of 15 cameras were installed throughout the three buildings.

Schools in the area enjoyed an extended Thanksgiving vacation after a blizzard struck that weekend. School was closed until Thursday. There was a late start on Friday morning, and school was again closed early. Spring break was also two days longer due to the winter weather. A total of eight school days were missed during the year. Maybe the yearbook theme should have been Drifts in Time...

The junior class decided to host their prom in the high school gym this year instead of having it at Skatetowne where it had been held in the past.

A bill was introduced into the state legislature that would close all schools with an enrollment under 100 students. This prompted school board member Pam Haukaas to sponsor an essay contest where students wrote letters in promotion of small schools.

Once a month students were dismissed early so teachers could attend in-services on curriculum mapping. Teachers created maps that related to the coursework that they teach during each month of the year.

These are just a few events that happened this year at CHS, and without a doubt there are many more. We have put them together throughout this book, and we hope you enjoy our recount of some of the Ripples in Time...

Colome students in grades K-12 participated in the "Read for Katrina" fundraiser that was held to help the victims of the devastating hurricane that hit Louisiana. The students raised a total of $3,579.84.

Seniors finish high school careers

On May 20, 2006, 11 seniors came to CHS for their last time as students. The graduating class contained only three girls and eight boys.

Just because the class was rather small, it did not mean they had not been a successful class. The year began with the election of officers. Senior officers this year were Courtney McCrellias (president), Shawn Croston (vice president), Colleen Martin (secretary/treasurer), and Ryan Atteberry (Student Council Rep.). Chris Sherman was the student body president.

Homecoming came fast with reality shows as the theme. Although the seniors did not place in the float competitions, the Cowboys won the football game 34-12. Seniors playing football this year included Shawn Croston, Luke Kartak, Ryan Atteberry, Spencer Hughes, and Chris Sherman. Chris Sherman and Colleen Martin were crowned Cowboy and Cowgirl.

Fall sports began in December. Shawn Croston and Chris Sherman played boys basketball, and they were picked to play in the East-West All-Star game. There were no senior girls out for basketball this year. Courtney McCrellias participated in oral interp.

In January five seniors competed in the American Legion Oratorical contest. Courtney won and went on to win third place at the state competition. Chris Sherman was selected to be a finalist for the South Dakota Wendy's High School Heisman award.

In the month of February, the senior class took a trip to Pierre for government class. They toured the Capitol building, Capitol Lake, and the women's prison.

On April 8, seven seniors attended the flashy Mardi Gras prom. Prom was held at the gym for the first time ever which should make a memorable prom for the seniors. Prom king went to Spencer Hughes, and Courtney McCrellias received prom queen, which the juniors selected. After prom the seniors received prizes like TV's and mini refrigerators at the party sponsored by the parents.

For senior skip day the seniors decided that they should go golfing in Winner and then fishing. Mrs. Shippy and Lyn Forgey were the supervisors.

As graduation grew closer, seniors were busy with graduation announcements and scholarships.

The senior class picked their class colors as green and black and selected a white carnation tipped with green for their flower. The class motto was "It's not what's underneath, but what we do that defines us." The class of 2006 will never forget the ripples they made at CHS.

The juniors held their annual magazine sales to raise money for prom. They raised a total of $6,042.03, but only a little less than $2,300 went to the class fund for prom. The top seller of the class this year was Jade DeMers, who sold $1,071 worth of magazines.

This year the juniors picked "Mardi Gras" as their theme for Prom 2006. They also made some changes to where prom was held. Instead of having Prom at Staketowne, they decided to move it to the gym.

CHS students participate in Homecoming activities

by Derek Beck

Students celebrated Homecoming week on Sept. 12-16. They participated in various activities throughout the week.

Monday started off with Pajama Day. The students dressed up in their pajamas and wore them to school.

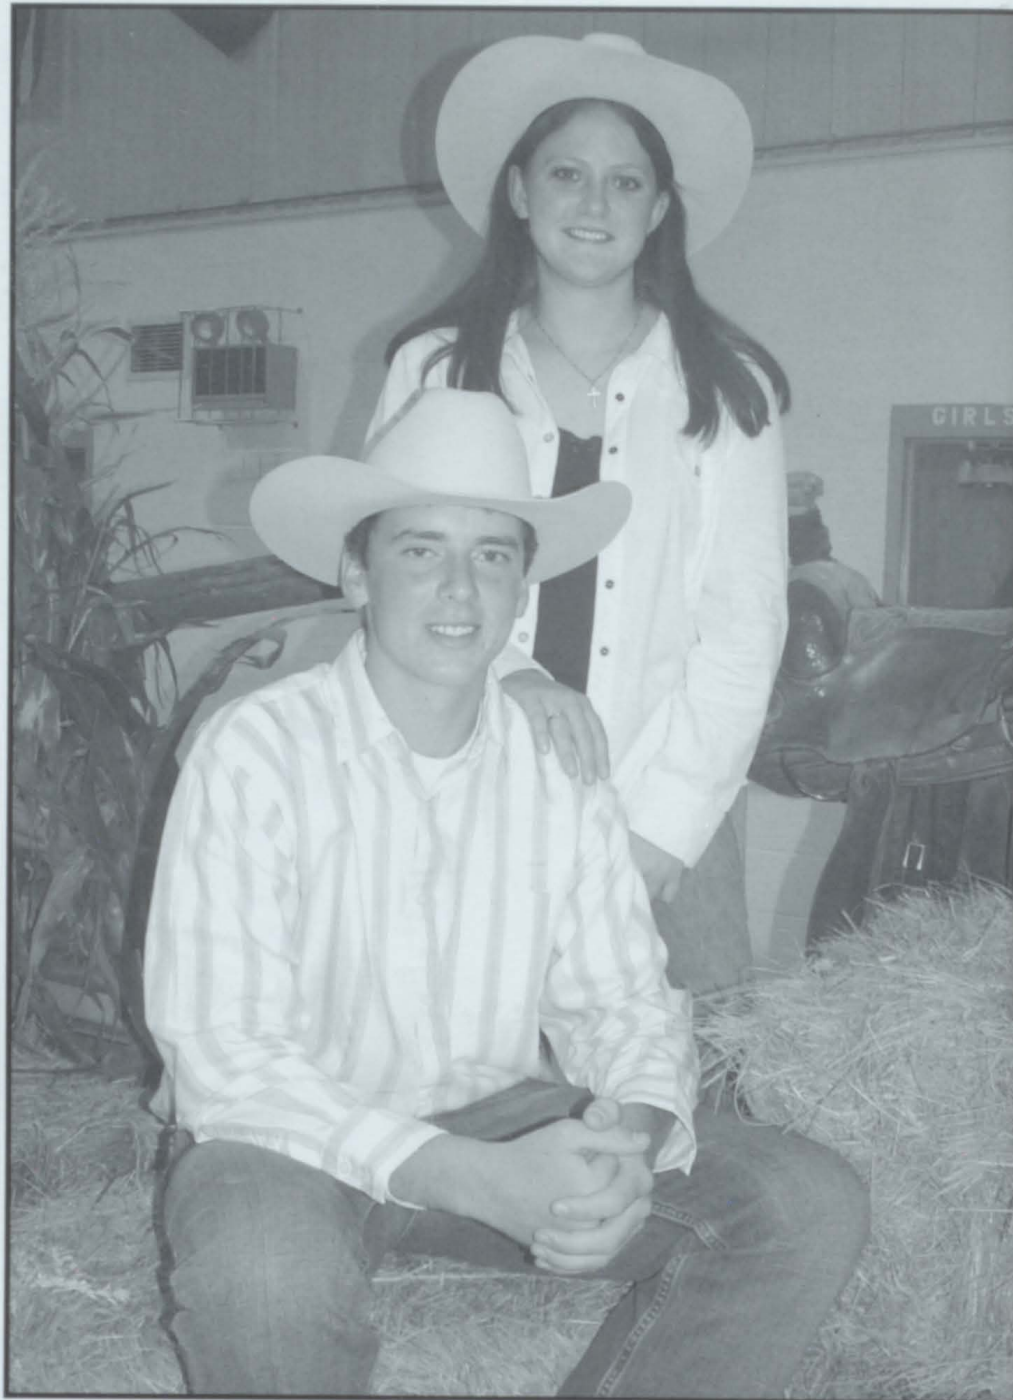

Tuesday was Wacky Clothes Day. Everyone dressed in his or her wackiest clothes. Tuesday was also the day the seniors bought the freshmen at the auction during PM SRB. The Cowgirls played a volleyball game that night. The girls won 3 out of 4 games against Wednesday was Slave and Occupation Day. The seniors initiated the freshmen by dressing them up and freshening them as slaves for the day. The freshmen followed the seniors' orders during the day, and other students could watch over noon hour as the freshmen did their class airplanes and the "Spirit in our Britches" cheer.

The rest of the students could dress as an occupation they wanted to be. Featured jobs included doctors, lawyers, and models.

Thursday was Snarf Day and Hat and Shades Day. The students could bring food and drinks to school and have them during class as long as it was okay with their teachers. They could also wear their favorite hats and shades for the day. Students attended a pep rally during PM SRB for the football and volleyball teams.

Thursday evening was Coronation, followed by a pep rally. The candidates for Cowboy were Chris Sherman, Shawn Croston, and Luke Kartak. The candidates for Cowgirl were Colleen Martin, Courtney McCrellias, and Jamie Esterling.

Colleen Martin and Chris Sherman pose as Cowgirl and Cowboy at Coronation 2005. They are wearing the traditional Stetsons that are awarded to the Cowgirl and Cowboy.

Sherman and Martin received this honor. Ryan Atteberry was the master of ceremonies for the event. Friday was Green and White Day. Most of the students wore green and white. The Cowboy Olympics took place in the morning from 8:30-10:00. At 1:00 p.m. was the Homecoming parade. The tailgate party for the PTSO scholarship fund began at 5:30 p.m. at the football field. The football game started at 7:00 p.m. The Cowboys won 34-12 against the Lake Andes Eagles.

Prom 2006

"Mardi Gras"

by Taylor Zeigler

People filled the gym. The colors were gold, black, purple, and green, and the decorations resembled New Orleans at Mardi Gras. Cameras were prepared to flash, and promgoers were lined up behind the black gossamer. The setting for the Grand March of Prom 2006 was ready.

Prom 2006 was a little different this year. Instead of having prom at Skatetowne, the juniors decided to host prom at the gym. There was a lot more room for the crowd to sit and stand.

Students could have dinner at the Colome Legion starting at 5:30 p.m. Then from there, they could go up to the gym for prom pictures, which started at 7:30 p.m.

Grand March started at 9:00 p.m., and all the students lined up to be announced. Rachele Schrader, junior class president, led the Grand March.

After Grand March, the students danced until 12:00 a.m. Some also played cards in the lobby where punch and popcorn were served. When the prom dance was over, the students had until 12:30 a.m. to change and meet back at the gym to head for the Winner Bowling Center. When the students arrived at the bowling center, they could grab something to eat. Then they could bowl and play arcade games. While they were playing games, they also won prizes when their name was announced over the loud speaker.

The students returned to Colome around 4 a.m., and the partygoers received gifts.

Cowgirls end volleyball season 8-19

The Colome volleyball team adjusted to a new coaching staff this year. Last year's coaches, Billie Jo Indahl and Lisa Thieman, resigned, and Mick Zink and Korey Bertram stepped in to coach the Cowgirls.

The Cowgirl team was a young team; there were no seniors out for the team. The Cowgirls lost four girls from last year's 12-14 team but did return six letter winners: Rachele Schrader, Paige Haukaas, Kristi Miner, Emily London, Ali Larsen, and Alisyn Graesser.

The Cowgirl volleyball team ended the season Nov. 1 in Bonesteel as they played a tough South Central team for the fourth time. The girls dropped the first game of the District 12 B Tournament match to the Cougars, 25-19, but they came from behind in the second game to defeat the Cougars 25-23. South Central then defeated the Cowgirls in the next two games 25-21, 25-23.

The young Cowgirl team finished the season with a record of 8-19. The girls gained some valuable experience that will be very useful to them next year as nine players saw regular varsity action this season, and everyone will be returning for the Cowgirls' 2006 season.

A number of awards went out at the end of the year. Freshman Ali Larsen was awarded the Best Serving Percentage. Freshman Claire Beck was awarded the Most Valuable Player award. Junior Paige Haukaas received the award for Most Improved, and freshman Hailey Hughes took home the Hustler award. These awards were presented by Coach Zink at the banquet in May.

Young Cowgirl team puts together 6-16 record

by Kristi Jo Miner

The 2005-2006 Cowgirl basketball team was the youngest that Coach Larry Koth has ever had in his 21 previous seasons as head coach at Colome. The team consisted of one junior, four sophomores, seven freshmen, two eighth graders, and six seventh graders.

"It was definitely a learning experience for all of us, and we are all looking forward to putting it to use next season," commented junior Rachele Schrader.

The Cowgirls also had to deal with their fair share of injuries this season. Four members of the team had to miss a few games after hurting their thumbs.

Ending up with a 6-16 record, the girls were outscored by their opponents 1082-943, which was about a seven-point deficit for each ball game. Colome managed to grab more rebounds each game than their opponents, pulling down 649 compared to 641. The Cowgirls had 271 assists to only 235 by their opponents.

As a team, the girls did not shoot very well. They shot only 31.7% from the field. The girls' free throw shooting was about 60.5%, and the Cowgirls made ten more free throws than their opponents.

In the Southern Plains Conference tournament, the girls placed eighth with losses against Jones Co./Midland in the first round, Lyman Co. the next night, and Stanley Co. in the eighth place game.

During South Central Conference games, Colome posted a record of 2-3. It was good enough for the third best in the conference. The Cowgirls led in rebounding, grabbing an average of 35 in each conference game. Emily London and Kristi Miner were named to the South Central all-conference team, and Rachele Schrader and Claire Beck received honorable mentions.

London was also named to the Southern Plains Conference Team. Miner and Alisyn Graesser received honorable mentions.

The junior varsity team was coached by Mende Supik and finished the season with a record of 6-9. Their leading scorer was Collene Cahoy with 64 points, and Hailey Hughes followed with 42. Heather O'Bryan led in rebounds with 61, and Sami Luse pulled down 49 rebounds.

The Cowgirls varsity team includes in back Coach Larry Koth, Coach Mende Supik, Emilee Graesser, Kristi Miner, Alisyn Graesser, Emily London, Megan Fast, Taylor Zeigler, Sami Luse, manager Ali Larsen, manager Courtney McCrellias, and manager Whitney Tuttle. Ben Kartak placed second in bareback on Saturday and finished third in the average.

Watertown hosted the second competition on June 10-11. The State High School Rodeo took place on June 22-25 in Belle Fourche, SD. The ultimate goal for everybody that rodeos is the National High School Finals Rodeo that was in Springfield, Illinois, on July 24 through the 30.

"People who aren't involved in rodeo do not fully understand how much time and dedication it takes to be successful," Newley Kartak commented. "I love rodeo because I compete for myself and not a team. If I mess up, I cannot blame anyone but myself. Last year after the state rodeo, I realized just how much dedication people put into the sport of rodeo."

Cheerleading Memories

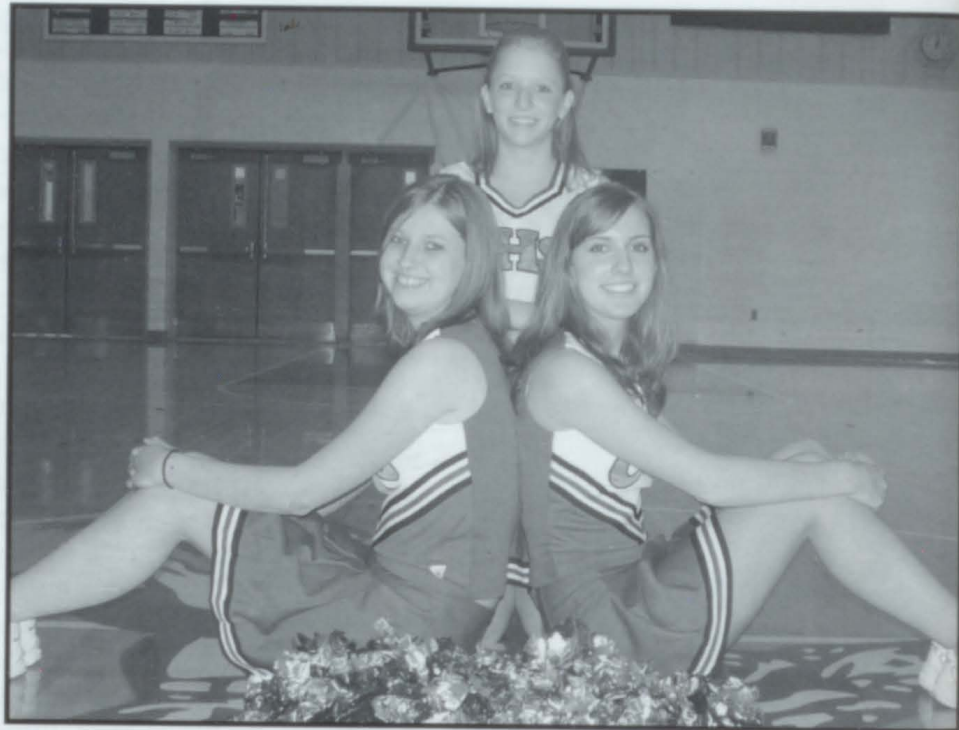

This year cheerleaders for football and boys basketball were both coached by Mrs. Amy Littau.

Six girls cheered for the boys during the football season. When it was time for winter sports, the three cheerleaders were Emily Heath, Candace Shippy, and Ashley Weidner.

"Basketball cheerleading was the best because Candace, Ashley, and I could never stop laughing," said Emily Heath, a junior.

"My best memory would be the inside joke 'Drop It.' We had some fun times!" added freshman Ashley Weidner.

"Cheering the Cowboys to victory with Ashley and Emily was one of the most fun things I've done for school," said Candace Shippy, a freshman.

Spurs perform three routines

The CHS dance team was hard at work this year. They performed three dances throughout the year.

The first dance they performed was called "At the Hop" and it was based on songs from the 50's. The second dance they performed was called "Switch." This dance was a hip-hop dance. The third dance they performed was a dance that Emily Heath and Felicia Hughes choreographed themselves. This dance was a remix of Beyonce Knowles songs.

"It was an interesting year. We had fun and did pretty well on all of our dances," said junior Felicia Hughes.

This year the dance team consisted of 19 girls, 11 of whom were jr. high students. The dance team was coached by Mrs. Becky Heath.

This year the dance team tried something new. They entered a dance competition in Huron in March. The girls performed the Beyonce dance, but they did not place in their division.

"It was a learning experience for us," commented Becky Heath. "We plan to go back next year."

At the end of June and the beginning of July, juniors Emily Heath and Rachele Schrader attended DANCE Hawaii U.S.A. At this camp the girls learned several routines for next year's dance team. Heath and Schrader held several fundraisers during the year to help with expenses.

The band performs "Ukrainian Bell Carol" during the Christmas concert. This was one of the three songs that the band played that night.

New director leads band

by Heather O'Bryan

This year the band had to adjust to a new band director. In January, Ms. Chelsey Wiegel took over as former director Mrs. Loretha Webber moved to Milbank. Ms. Wiegel was in charge of elementary music, 5-12 instrumental music, and 7-12 vocal music.

The band started the year with the kids learning pep band songs like "Notre Dame Victory March" and "The Star Spangled Banner." The band played at Coronation and marched in the Homecoming parade. They played "Spider Man" on Homecoming. Then during the Veteran's Day assembly, the band played "God Bless America." They soon started to prepare for the Christmas concert. The band performed three songs at the concert: "Ukrainian Bell Carol," "Fire Dance," and "Santa's Holiday."

When the concert was over, the band students then played pep songs before the varsity game and during half-time. While the students were performing at the basketball games, they worked hard on the songs that they were to perform at the spring concert. They played "Highlights from The Wizard of Oz" by Harold Arlen and the "African Marching Song" by John O'Reilly.

The band sold cookie dough as a fundraiser. They wanted to raise enough to buy new marching uniforms. The students ended their year of band by playing at graduation.

Weigel takes over as choir director

by Heather O'Bryan

This year the choir had to adjust to a new choir director, Ms. Chelsey Weigel. Weigel took over the choir when former director Mrs. Loretha Webber moved to Milbank. The chorus consisted of 35 students; 14 were high school students.

The choir mostly worked on the songs for the concerts this year. Two of students went to the vocal contest. Freshmen Jennie Duley and Kayla Duncan both participated in a vocal contest in Chamberlain. Duley received a superior, and Duncan did a very good job.

For the Christmas concert the choir sang "At the Hop," "Alleluia Noel," "Shenandoah," and "Let Us Sing." Freshman Jennie Duley sang "Amazing Grace" at the concert.

For the spring concert the chorus performed "Tambourick," "Rhythm of Life," and "Two in the Middle."

Jennie Duley also sang "Cross the White Missouri/The Water is White" as a solo. She was accompanied by Emily Heath on piano and Ms. Weigel on violin.

"The choir is a very talented group of kids. I am looking forward to working with them next year," said director Ms. Chelsey Weigel.

Students participate in oral interp

by Heather O'Bryan

This year's oral interpretation participants were senior Courtney McCrellias and juniors Toby Harter, Newley Kartak, and Tiffany Weidner. The coach was Mrs. Mary Pat Fawcett.

Their schedule involved three invitational meets which were in Winner, White River, and Pierre. Districts were held in Kimball. Newley Kartak and Toby Harter placed second in duets at districts, which qualified them to compete at the regional tournament. They performed a piece called "The Greater Tuna," a humorous play about a town in Texas named Tuna. Courtney McCrellias performed a humorous piece that placed fourth.

Regions were held in Pierre. Harter and Kartak presented their duet. In order for them to participate in state, they had to place in the top three at regions. They finished fifth.

"I thought we performed well, but not well enough to impress the judges," said Harter. "We had an opportunity to see some great talent, and I hope that we can do better next year."

"Regions for oral interp was a great experience," said Kartak. "We performed our best but had a lack of experience and practice. We also found some great pieces for next year, and we found a new team chant."

"It was a fun and an enjoyable experience for me," said junior Toby Harter. "I hope that more people will go out for it next year."

"The four kids have a lot of talent. The competition was tough, but they did a great job this year. I hope that we will get more kids with talent to go out next year," said advisor Mary Pat Fawcett.

"Oral Interp was really fun this year. We got to meet very diverse individuals and get close to Mrs. Fawcett. I encourage everyone to try it at least for a year. It definitely is an experience," said senior Courtney McCrellias.

National Honor Society sponsors activities for students

The National Honor Society provided different activities for students to participate in during the year. From Cowboy Olympics to Teacher Appreciation Week, they were active.

They started the year by preparing for Cowboy Olympics that took place on Friday morning before the Homecoming parade. The games included human pretzel, passing the Lifesaver and a Kool-Aid drinking contest. The seniors were the winners of the olympics.

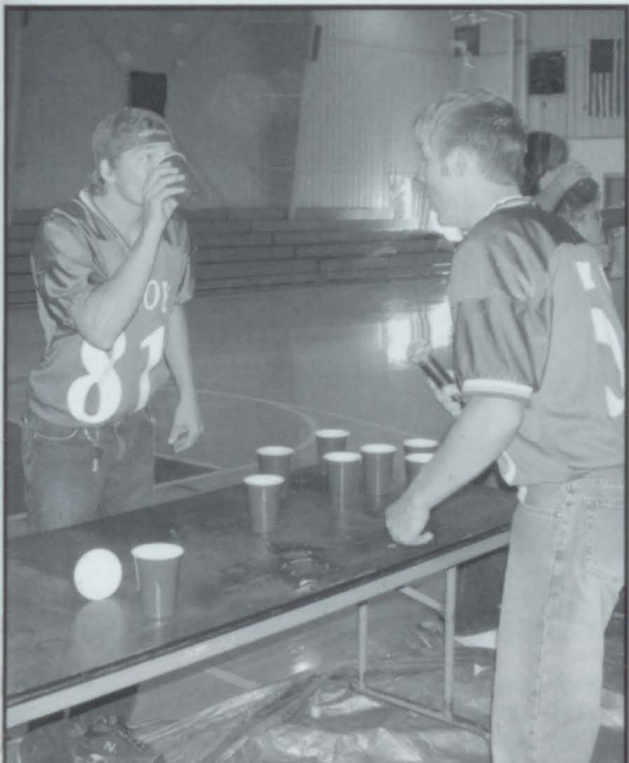

Another event that they sponsored was Snow Week in February. They had days like Punk Day, Pajama Day, Sports Apparel Day, and Snarf Day. On Friday the classes participated in the Battle of the Sexes. In this game girls had to answer boy questions like what color is antifreeze or how many lugnuts are on a tire; then the boys had to answer girl questions like what do you not ask a girl and how do you fix a tear in nylons. The girls were the winners of this game.

For the Easter holiday, NHS sponsored an Easter egg hunt for the little kids. It was held at the baseball and football fields.

On May 3, the NHS sponsored a town-wide clean up. The students and the faculty split into groups to clean different parts of the town.

On May 11, the NHS inducted 3 new members. They were sophomores Kristi Miner and Brad Kahler and junior Derek Graesser.

NHS also sponsored a teacher appreciation day in May. During SRB the teachers were recognized for their years of service.

Play cast moves Christmas to March

by Kristi Miner

This year's all-school play was called Virgil's Christmas Catch. It was a story about a man from the country who is trying to earn some Christmas money by working as a janitor for an advertising agency in the city.

While Virgil is cleaning one of the offices, he and his best friend, Ellard, come up with their own ad slogan for Kramer Fishing Lures. Their idea is used by accident, but the ad turns out to be a huge success.

Because of their hit slogan, Virgil and some of his friends are invited to the company Christmas party. These folks have never been to a fancy Christmas party in the city before, but they manage to show some of the city people a good time.

Toby Harter played the part of Virgil Sludge, and Paige Haukaas played the part of his wife Margaret. His best friend, Ellard, was played by Newley Kartak; Ellard's fiancé, Bertha Mae, was played by Rachele Schrader. Kristi Miner played the part of Maggie, owner of Maggie's Diner and Bait Shop.

Courtney McCrellias played the advertising executive, Darcy Richardson; her assistant, Macy, was Tiffany Weidner. Jordan Bicek played advertising executive Raven Beeker, and Heather O'Bryan was their boss, Mrs. Tate.

The advertising firm's most important clients, the Kramer sisters, were played by Ashley Weidner and Kali Heath. Their older sister, Mrs. Harriet Kramer-Smith, was played by Candace Shippy. Raven Beeker's date, Peach, was played by Whitney Tuttle. The party hostess and event coordinator, Mrs. Dunaway, was Claire Beck, and the event's photographer, Heather Baily, was played by Emily Heath.

Mrs. Mary Pat Fawcett was the director of her fifth play at CHS this year. Assisting her was Ms. Chelsey Weigel, the band and choir instructor.

"The play turned out to be pretty funny. It was around an hour and ten minutes long," commented Mrs. Fawcett. "The kids also had a lot of fun doing it."

Because school was canceled on March 20 and 21, the play cast decided to move Friday night's performance and the school matinee to Tuesday, March 28.

"Because of the weather, we weren't able to get enough practices in. It also caused problems with time and scheduling," Mrs. Fawcett said.

In the second row are Kirstin Cahoy, Courtney McCrellias, Paige Haukaas, Rachele Schrader, Tiffany Weidner, Kristi Miner, and Megan Fast. Student Council plans Homecoming

by Barb Bigelow

The Student Council planned two activities this year. They were in charge of Homecoming and the ski trip.

During Homecoming, the Student Council scheduled different activities. Monday started off with Pajama Day, and Tuesday was Wacky Clothes Day. Slave and Occupation Day was on Wednesday. On Thursday students could come to school in their hats and shades. They could also bring food to the class. Thursday night was Coronation, followed by a pep rally. On Friday students could wear green and white to show their school spirit.

The Student Council also planned a ski trip to Terry Peak. Unfortunately they were unable to go this year. The weather was too bad to travel the roads. They left early in the morning, but they had to return to Colome because the Interstate 90 was closed.

The Student Council stocks the concession stand, and other groups sell pop and food during games. This year the Student Council donated some of the money that they earned to the speaker system for the gym.

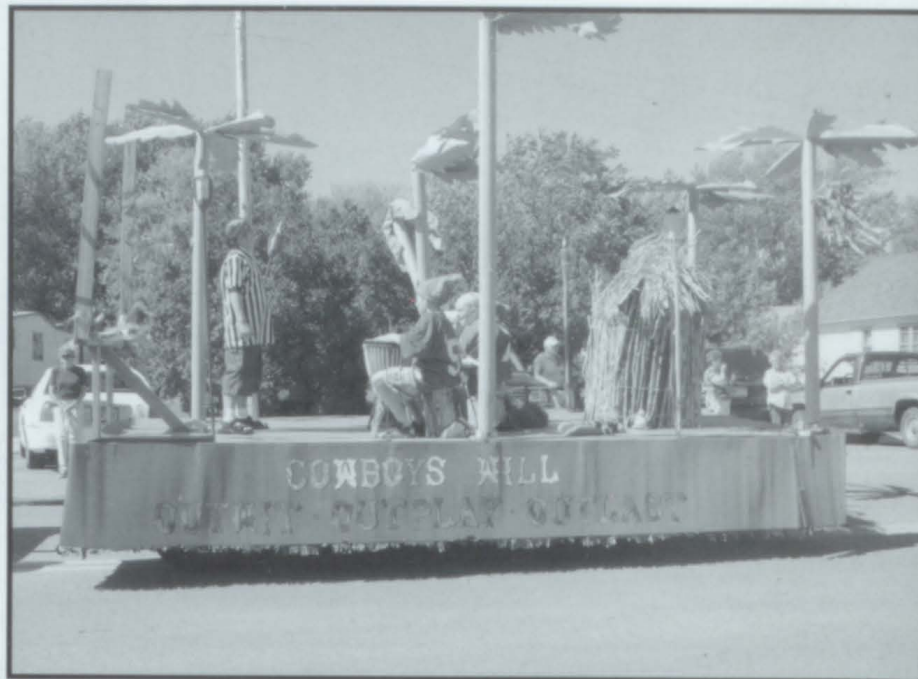

The officers this year included Chris Sherman as president, Courtney McCrellias as vice president; Rachele Schrader as secretary, and Emily Heath as treasurer.

Desktop class creates school paper and yearbook

by Taylor Zeigler

This year's desktop publishing class consisted of seven sophomores. They were Derek Beck, Barbara Bigelow, Sami Luse, Kirsti Miner, Heather O'Bryan, Josh Sherman, and Taylor Zeigler. They published this year's school newspaper, The Lariat, each month and also created the yearbook. The class created the yearbook on Jostens Yearbook Avenue online instead of Adobe Pagemaker.

The desktop class took the annual trip to Sioux Falls on Wednesday, April 5. When they arrived they checked into their hotel, shopped, and did a little bit of swimming.

The next morning the students visited Falls Park before they went to the Argus Leader. They received a tour from Ronda Thielen, who explained the different areas of the newspaper. She also showed them where the newspapers were printed and how they were distributed.

KELO-Land is where Paul Farmer showed the students how everything worked. Then students watched them air the Middy News.

The class also visited the Washington Pavillion. They went to the art museum and watched Africa: The Serengeti at the Cinnedome. The students returned home on Thursday the 6th.

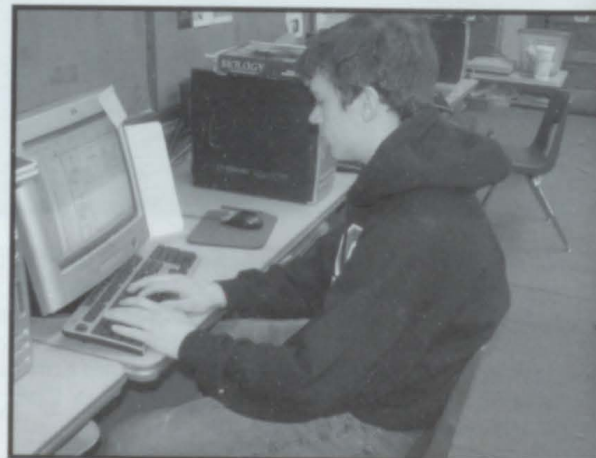

The class would like to thank Mrs. Rohde for all she has done this year. They would also like to thank her for taking them on the desktop trip and putting up with them all year.

Ways to make a ripple at CHS

Kurtis Atteberry, sophomore, said that he liked spending his study halls in shop. He also enjoyed football.

Spencer Hughes, junior, said his favorite time was when Don Paulson was hitting golf balls at Shawn and him on senior skip day.

Jordan Bicek, junior, said that his favorite memories were competing in sports and doing flips in the hallway when no one was looking.

Ben Kartak, Rustin Bertram, and Peter Haukaas said that they had fun hanging out together at Ben's birthday party.

Hailey Hughes, freshman, said her favorite time was at track practice when they had a water balloon fight.

Morgan Hughes and Collene Cahoy, seventh graders, said their favorite moment was when their float came apart in the parade.

Mrs. Shippy said her favorite memory was walking around town in biology identifying the different trees.

Brad Kahler and Kristi Miner said being inducted into NHS and making T-shirts in Computers II were their favorite times.

Club E

Students enjoy after school program

by Josh Sherman

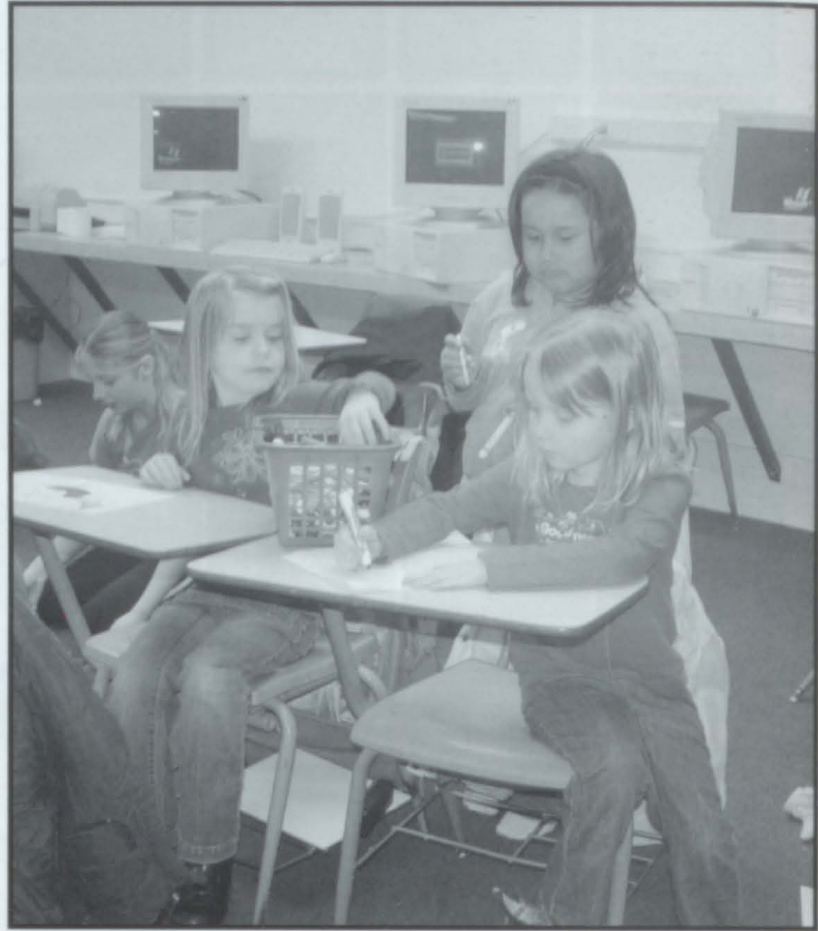

Club E is a program that gives kids a place to go after school while their parents are still at work. During this school year the kids did various activities, and the advisors helped kids with homework, gave them snacks, and let them play games. Club E started right after school and lasted until 5:30.

Mrs. Amy Littau was the head of Club E and organized the activities as well as supervised the kids. Mrs. Kim Bertram also supervised the kids and was in charge of the crafts. Jamie Esterling was a student helper for the organization. She helped the kids with homework and activities and supervised them during their playtime. Other students came in to help at various times to gain community service hours.

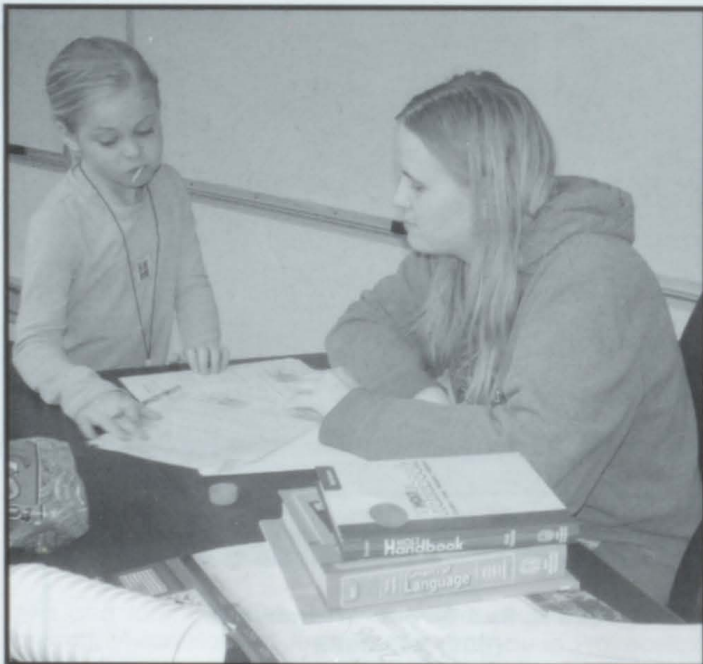

Club E completed many activities throughout the year. Some were weekly and some occurred one time. Mrs. Becky Heath and a group of helpers performed puppet shows for the kids on Wednesdays. Mrs. Lucy Atteberry talked to the kids about health and nutrition on Thursdays.

Club E averaged 7-10 kids each day after school.

There were also activities during the summer. Club E provided swimming once a week. They transported the kids to Winner for swimming at the Winner pool. There was a baseball camp during the summer. A group of performers also came to Colome to help students with their acting skills. After a week of practice, the students performed for the community.

Hurricanes ravage the Gulf Coast region in the fall of 2005, posing an unprecedented test of the United States federal emergency response efforts. Hundreds of lives are lost and thousands are left homeless in the wake of Category 4 Hurricane Katrina, followed by Rita and Wilma. The tragedy spurs contributions of money, talents, homes, food and more in an attempt to raise spirits and rebuild the area.

- 28 Mandatory evacuation of both New Orleans and Mississippi is ordered as Katrina becomes a Category 5 storm in the Gulf of Mexico.
- 29 Downgraded to a Category 4 storm, Katrina hits land. 1.3 million homes and businesses lose electricity in Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. 30 levees are breached, flooding New Orleans and leaving 100,000 people stranded. After slow government response, civil unrest and looting begins.
- 31 President Bush surveys the damage.

September

- 1 30,000 National Guard troops are deployed. Gas prices spike to as high as $5 per gallon.
- 2 President Bush visits Louisiana and signs a $10.5 billion relief bill. Nearly 154,000 evacuees arrive in Texas.
- 4 The New Orleans Superdome is evacuated.
- 6 President Bush and Congress pledge to investigate the flawed disaster response.
- 9 Government-issued debit cards are distributed to evacuees. The program fails and is ended days later.
- 12 Michael Brown, head of the Federal Emergency Management Agency, resigns. Flooding is down to 50 percent in New Orleans.
- 14 New Orleans Mayor Ray Nagin announces a phased repopulation plan.
- 15 New Orleans begins to reopen. Katrina is named the most destructive hurricane in U.S. history.
- 20 Louisiana Governor Kathleen Blanco declares a state of emergency as Hurricane Rita strengthens off the coast.
- 22 Rita hits the Louisiana coast and heads for Texas.
- 23 Thousands evacuate eastern Texas and the 9th Ward of New Orleans floods once again after levees are overrun.

October

- 24 Hurricane Wilma hits southwest Florida.
